Philatelic Europe Also Split

The Department of Philately of the Soviet Ministry of Culture has organized an exchange system whereby Soviet philatelists will be able to buy collections of 1-200 stamps from Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and East Germany. (No explanation is given of why Bulgaria and Albania are not included.) There is very little direct exchange among philatelists in these countries, for experience proves that requests sent to individuals are usually not answered, unless sent through official channels such as a "House of Soviet Culture," schools, institutions and special departments for "cultural relations with foreign countries"—i.e., between the USSR and its satellites. There has been virtually no exchange between the free and the Iron Curtain countries.
